The following supplementary information may be useful in the preparation of your federal, state, and/or city tax returns. This information is not intended to cover all of the complexities of a shareholder's individual tax situation. Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of their investment in the Funds. Net Investment Income and Capital Gains Paid in 2011

During 2011, the Funds made the following per share distributions which you may have received depending on your ownership at the time of the distribution. See your respective Form 1099 for the appropriate character of these distributions for tax reporting purposes.

- (1) The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 provides that the qualified portion of a regulated investment company dividend that is a short-term capital gain dividend will not be subject to U.S. tax withholding for non-resident aliens and foreign corporations. Funds which paid short-term capital gain distributions have 100% Qualified Short-Term Capital Gains.

Distributions of net investment income and short-term capital gains, whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2011, are taxable as ordinary income for Federal income tax purposes. Distributions of long-term capital gains are taxable as such, whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2011, regardless of the length of time shares were held by you.

Past distributions and performance are no guarantee of future distributions or results. If you are investing through an IRA or other tax-deferred account, special rules apply.
